Easter Specials

ENGLISH CURED BACON 30c SWIFT PRÉMIUM BACON 24c ARMOUR STAR BACON 23c ENGLISH CURED HAMS 24-26c SWIFT PREMIUM HAMS 20-22c ARMOUR STAR HAMS 19-21c S. & S. LAUREL HAMS 16c GIVE US YOUR EASTER ORDER

There will be a limited number of Turkeys, Ducks, Capons and Broilers. Everything you can think of in Veg-

FARLY

Somers

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN

TEACHER All String Instruments repaired Violins sold on easy terms

For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

For Easter

you will find just 'the thing you need in new Jewelry right here.

Dress Pins, Earrings, Hat Pins, Lingerie Clasps Prices Low

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

Jewelers

Established 1872 PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING

QUALITY SHOE SHOP

"LaFrance Shoes"

All that Quality Suggests

STYLE COMFORT SERVICE

CHARBONNEAU & ANDREWS

159 Main St., Norwich, Conn.

If you can't drink Coffee try "MINUTE BREW"

at RALLION'S

NEW SPRING MILLINERY at MRS. G. P. STANTON'S

PLUMBING AND STEAM FITTING

Phone 581

MODERN PLUMBING

s as essential in modern house as electricity is to lighting. We guaranice the very best PLUMBING WORK by expert workmen at the fariest

Ask us for plans and prices.

F. TOMPKINS 67 West Main Street

Robert J. Cochrane

GAS FITTING, PLUMBING, STEAM FITTING, 0 West Main Street, Norwich, Conn Agent for N. B. O. Sheet Packing.

92 Franklin Street

IRON CASTINGS FURNISHED PROMPTLY BY

THE VAUGHN FOUNDRY CO

No. 11 to 25 Farry Street THERE is no advertising medium in

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Tuesday, March 30, 1915.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Some of the churches plan sunrise services on Easter day.

Several from this section are in New York to attend the photographic The temperature continued low Mon-day, although the day was bright and

The second full moon of March will appear shortly after midnight tomor-row (Wednesday) morning.

A few more boxes for the K. of ball April 12th are left.—adv.

Local bakers are making prepara-ions to turn out many hundred dozens f Hot Cross buns on Good Friday.

Morris Freeman's grocery store in Palmertown was entered by a burglar between 5 and 6 o'clock Sunday after-

The girls of the Haile club had a successful supper Saturday evening in their rooms in the Chapman building their rooms in on Broadway.

At New London the other night 37 unemployed men tried to get a night's rest huddled in the tramps' room at police headquarters. Union service at 7.45 p. m., at Trinty Methodist church.-

At the funeral of Dr. Oliver C. Smith to be held in Hartford today, one of the sixteen honorary bearers will be Dr. S. B. Overlock of Pomfret.

James Howard, 68, died at his home in Niantic Sunday. He is survived by his widow, a brother, John Howard, and a son and daughter.

Mrs. Brewer G. Boardman of Woodstock, wife of a former pastor of the First Baptist church at Waterford, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Monday morning William H. Wordell, proprietor of the Ocean Beach pavilion, began the work of getting the place in order for the season.

Members of the Norwich College club have already raised over $500 toward a scholarship in the new College for Women, for some Academy girl grad-

The Connecticut State Dental association is to hold its 51st annual convention at Foot Guard armory, Hartford, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 20, 21 and 22.

Art students here have been notified that the 24th annual exhibition of the Association of Women Painters and Sculptors is to be held in the Ander-son galleries, New York, April 5 to 17.

The state fish and game commission has leased a plot of ground on the Farmington river in Windsor and have already started the work of having a building built for shad hatching pur-

Miss Mary Day of Colchester, state superintendent of flower mission and relief work, advocates in the White Ribbon Banner having local W. C. T. unions offer prizes of $1 or more to school children for the best school gar-

An invitation to participate in the annual parade and field day of the C. T. A. U. of Connecticut, to be held at Southington June 19 under the auspices of St. Thomas' T. A. B of that place, has been received by St. Mary's T. A. and B. goriett.

The Colonial Dames of the state of New York published a memorial Sat-urday to Mrs. John Henry Platt, sign-ed by Katherine M. Beekman, presi-dent, and Therese K. Thorne, record-ing secretary. When in Norwich, Mrs. Platt's school was on Uncas street.

The American workingman is least efficient in January, February and March, according to a study made by Prof. Ellsworth Huntington of Yale, based on the daily wage records of 500 operators on piecework in three factories in Connecticut, as they varied day by day for a period of four successive years.

Miss Henrietta Fuller, recently of Washington, D. C., died at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Weeks, of Po-quonnoc, Saturday morning. She is survived by a twin sister, Miss Har-riet Fuller, of Montville. Funeral ser-vices were held in Poquonnoc Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Miss Fuller was born in July, 1829.

UNION SERVICE.

First for Holy Week Was Held at Sec ond Congregational Church,

The first of the union services for Holy week was held at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Second Congregational church and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. J. Wyckoff, who preached upon the theme The Turning oint, from the text John 6-48. Prayer was offered by Rev. F. W. Coleman and the scripture lesson was read by Rev. Joseph F. Cobb.

AT DAVIS THEATRE.

Tillie's Punctured Romance. The big Keystone feature of all fea-ures was at the Davis theatre on Monday and, as promised, drew capacity houses for all shows during the after-noon and evening. Marie Dressler, Charlie Chaplin and Mabel Normand, the three Keystone stars in fun-pro-ducing, are any one of them competent enough alone to make a picture popu-lar, but when you get them all three together, as in Tillie's Punctured Ro-mance, the result is irresistible. That was the way it hit the local audiences who sat through two solid hours of laughter as the film unrolled before their eyes and produced one scene after another in which these three stars per-formed. The picture promises to make a record for the theatre during the three days that it will be here,

In the City Court. Five men were fined for intoxication at the Monday morning session of the city court, most of them having until May I to settle up, but one man who could not pay was sent to jail. A West Side man who was arrested for drunkenness on Broadway Sunday was placed on probation. A man accused of fighting was discharged.

Bankruptcy Petition.

bill for legal services amounting T. F. BURNS

Heating and Plumbing

Taliforad byskeman, of New London, has forced him into bankruptcy, as he filed a petition in Hartford Monday showing C. G. Austin & Sons of St. Albans, Vt., as his only creditor. Mr. Fadden has $103 in the bank.

> Installed Cadets Officers. The officers of St. Joseph's Tierney Temperance Cadets, were installed in New London on Sunday by County Di-rector William H. McGuinness of this city who was assisted by Organizer James McDonald.

> Visited T. A. B. Society. William H. McGuinness, county di-rector, made a visit Sunday to St. Mary's Star of the Sea Total Abstin-ence society in New London, Two ap-plicants were elected to membership.

Harry Douglas has returned to Nor-wich after visiting in Mystic,

Miss Janie Leach and Miss Marion Beebe are spending several days in Providence, R. I.

PERSONALS

Miss Fairbanks of Worcester, Mass. s the guest of Senator and Mrs. John H. Barnes of Broadway.

Miss Josephine Edwards of Hickory street and Miss Anna Curran are visit-ing in Washington, D. C. Miss Gertrude Allen of Pratt insti-tute is spending the Easter vacation at her home on Broad street.

Miss Alice Woodmansee of the New London county home is recovering from a severe attack of the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. P. McShane and little sons. Francis and Leonard, of Hanover vere recent visitors in Plainfield. John Lyman of Yale college is guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Beebe of East Great Plain. The famous artist, Charles H. Davis, of Mystic, and Mrs. Davis are guests of Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott in New

The Misses Mary and Annie McCon-nell are spending the week end with their brother, Hector McConnell, of Miss Helen Murphy of Trinity col-ege, Washington, D. C., is passing the Easter vacation at her home on Wil-Mrs. Frank Marquis of Brooklyn, N

, is spending the Easter recess with er parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Talbot, of Asylum street

Miss Kathryn McMahon, who accom-panied her mother, Mrs. M McMahon, to Providence, has returned to her home in Hanover. Mrs. Harry E. Prentice and two children of Norwich have been guests of Mrs. Prentice's sister, Mrs. Frank R.

Bartlett, of Torrington. Willard A. Lucas of Poquetanuck whard A. Lucas of Poquetanuck was a visitor in Norwich on Monday. Mr. Lucas has just recovered from an According to a statement made on Monday by Dr. C. J. Becker of the federal government there are symptoms of the foot and mouth disease in two more herds of cattle in Preston. He, with Dr. F. A. Ingram, deputy catliness of some duration. SENT SHOT TO STOP

MAN CLIMBING WALL

Policeman Morgan Ran Across Suspicious Character Early Monday

Policeman Myron O. Morgan on the Tanklin Street beat discovered a man climbing over the wall into the city cemetery Monday morning about 2

The man failed to heed the officer's inquiry as to what he was doing there and the policeman fired a shot to halt him, but the man kept on going and disappeared in the darkness on the other side of the wall. A squad of seven policemen searched the neighborhood but the fellow had such a good start that he could not be found.

FUNERAL.

Charles Wanton Briggs.

The body of Charles Wanton Briggs was taken to Washington, R. I., by au-tomobile Monday morning at 9 o'clock and burial took place beside the re-mains of Mrs. Briggs in the cemetery there. Relatives and friends accompanied and were present at the burial Funeral services for Mr. Briggs were held at his residence, No. 175 Broad-way, on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock with Rev. Samuel H. Howe, pastor of Park Congregational church, officiating. Many relatives and friends were present, some attending from out of town. The quartette of Broadway church, consisting of Mrs. F. S. Young, Mrs. Charles Tyler Bard, Walter F. Lester and Louis A. Wheeler rendered Lead Kindly Light, Face to Face, and of Frederick W. Lester. The floral forms were beautiful and numerous.
Undertakers Henry Allen and Son had charge of the funeral arrange-

Old Turnpike Record.

E. S. Comstock of Hadlyme has presented to the state library a yellowed manuscript book containing the records of the Hadlyme and New London Turnpike company, as made by his grandfather, Elijah Comstock. There were 45 or more snareholders in the turnpike company, who subscribed at the rate of $100 a share for the purpose of meeting the expenses of building the projected road. There were also a number of donations. Included in the records are the reports of the committee appointed by the company to transact business and the figures giving the bearings of the road in the terms of Chinamen's Hearing Postponed. The hearing of Lee Him and Chin Dung Wong of Willimantic, charged with being illegally in the United States, was postponed again by United States Commissioner Richard F. Car-roll in Hartford to Tuesday, April 6, to accommodate the defendants, as one of their chief witnesses is recovering

Books-Food

To make good use of knowledge, one needs a strong body and a clear brain-largely a matter of right food.

Grape=Nuts FOOD

contains proper nutriment for building body and brain-for renewing the tissue cells that are exhausted daily by work and play. Grape-Nuts food is made from wheat and barley-contains all their nutriment, including those vital mineral salts found under the outer coat, which are especially necessary for the daily upkeep of nerves and brain. "There's a Reason" for Grape-Nuts

-sold by Grocers everywhere

BY-LAWS AND CONSTITUTION

Adopted for Norwich Building and Loan Association-Corporation Papers to be Taken Out-Permanent Organization in April—Plan to Start First Series of Shares in June,

Another step in the plan for the The meeting recommended the names formation of the Norwich Building and of C. J. Isbister, John E. Fanning Loan association was taken here on Monday evening at an adjourned meeting held in the rooms of the Nor-wich Chamber of Commerce in the Transportation Building.

Frank H. Smith, who had been chosen president in the tentative organization made early this month, pre-sided, and the first action was the con-sideration of the constitution and bysideration of the constitution and by-laws which had been presented at a meeting a week ago and laid over for ratification and adoption at this meet-ing. These were read through, article by article, by Secretary A. Ernest Cherry and were approved and adopt-ed with a few minor changes. They follow the constitution and by-laws used by the New London and Bridge-port associations. port associations.

It was voted to have 5,000 of these constitution and by-laws printed for distribution.

The committee on incorporation, which consists of H. R. Branche, James A. Hiscox and John E. Fanning, was directed to proceed with this, which it is expected to have completed by the third Tuesday in April to which adjournment was taken for permanent organization of the building and loan association at that time. distribution, that time.

Awaiting Developments,

tle commissioner, made final inspec-tions of the herds on Monday after-nech.

The disinfecting of the premises where cattle have been killed because of the disease is lagging somewhat because of the non-arrival of the implements with which the disinfecting is

The material is here and a tracer has been sent out for the pumps, brooms, etc., which were shipped from Boston. The first premises to be disinfected will be those of Ernest Fargo, of Fitchville. From there the of-ficers will go to John H. Wilson's farm and will then disinfect the Clark farm.

and will then disinfect the Chark farm.
Old material in the barns and sheds where the cattle have been quartered will be removed and the premises will be put in shape so that other stock may be quartered there without danger of infection. All the expense incurred through the making of repairs are paid by the government.

LOST MONEY AND WATCHES

meone Went Through New Lendon

Men's Clothes at the Armory.

The Fifth company coast artillery in-

The Fifth company coast artiflery in-door baseball team defeated the First company team from New London at the armory on Monday evening in a close and exciting game by the score of 18 to 17, but further excitement was added to the evening when it was discovered after the game that somebody had gone through the clothing of seven of the visiting players and had stolen two watches and about $40 in money.

The clothing was left in the company room while the New London boys pany room while the New London boys were playing, and as the room was not locked someone got access to the clothes and secured what valuables they could lay their hands on.

Four young men who were playing cards in the room are under suspicion.

Three of them do not belong to the local military organization and one of the three was held Monday night at the police station on suspicion.

The heaviest loser among the New London players was a young man who had $30 in money and a watch stolen.

W. WALDO KENNEDY.

Portland, Maine, Moose Home.

The corner stone for the proposed home of Pine Cone lodge, L. O. O. M., at Portland, Maine, was laid Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The first shovelful of earth was turned by Dic-tator Percy S. Ackerman. He dug with a pick axe amid the jests of the members, but all was quiet when he lifted the shovel and said: "Brothers, it is with great pleasure that I turn the first shovelful of earth toward the building of our new home." Mr. Ack-erman then introduced N. Waldo Wen-nedy, the national director. Mr. Ken-

Mr. Kennedy was formerly of Put-nam and this city.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Minstrels and Photoplays.

Officiates at Laying of Cornerstone

INDOOR BASEBALL PLAYERS

MAY BE MORE

MANY GOING ON

proposed.

INFECTED HERDS SPECIAL TO HARTFORD Two Are Under Quarantine in Preston To Appear Before Committee to Oppose Separation of Town.

and W. A. Somers for auditors when intention to become sharehoders when the first series starts. The indications are that there will be many share-holders to be added to the 30 names which were signed at the time the formation of the association was first Chamber of Commerce Directors.

building and loan association, a meeting of the directors of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce was held at which Mayor T. C. Murphy, Frank H. Smith and William H. Cruickshank were elected delegates to attend the

Deeper Waterways convention at New London on Wednesday. The directors also decided that the free public lec-ture upon the subject of Thrift, to be given by a representative of the American Bankers association will be

Before the meeting regarding the

the permanent organization

A delegation of 150 opposed to the proposed bill to create the town of Old Norwich from the present town of ing in all to $100,000. The company Norwich, is expected to go to Hartford this morning on the special train amount paid in. to attend the hearing before the committee on new towns and probate dis tricts. Besides these it is understood that there will be a number to go in automobiles. The special train for the opponents to the bill will leave the Central Ver-mont station for Hartford at 9.05 a. m. and will reach Hartford ahead of The special train is scheduled to leave Hartford for Norwich at 5.30 and it is expected the hearing will have ended before train time. Every cit-izen is invited to take in the trip, the expense to be $1.98 for the round trip, a special rate for the opponents of the bill

New names given to the committee on Monday to go on the special train included: Casper K. Bailey, John M. Swahn, Dr. T. A. Crowley, John D. Fleming, R. B. S. Washburn, Joseph A. Fleming, R. B. S. Washburn, Joseph A. George, Reuben P. Potter, Dr. Daniel Jones, Frederick T. Backus, A. R. Grover, John Donovan, Alfred Roureau, Frank Aubrey, William J. Mc-Knight, Elmore H. Berry, F. E. Beckwith, Dr. J. M. King, E. J. Graham, Timothy Sullivan, Robert McNeely, R. C. Jones, Joseph W. Gilbert, George W. Friswell, William Wilson, A. H. Breed, Henry E. Church, W. C. Bode, R. M. Powers, W. H. Yeomans, Hibberd R. Norman, Conrad Greiner, Fred Thumm, W. B. Disco, Frank A. Monberd R. Norman, Conrad Greiner, Fred Thumm, W. B. Disco, Frank A. Mon-roe, George A. Davis, Justin Holden, George C. Preston, N. D. Lamb, W. B. Prentice, Albert A. Clark, Alex Fin-layson, Albert Fournier, W. H. Card-well, Hugh Blackledge, Joseph E. Marchessault, George C. Driscoll, John Trankla, W. O. Rogers, James Ma-boney, Towney B. honey, James P. Service, Judge N J. Ayling, R. F. Smith, Frank T. Maples, Charles S. Fairclough, John Dodd, Dr. John W. Callahan, Dr. William B. Casey, Frank H. Woodworth, Casper Graff, Joseph Campion, Walter F. Lester, Charles Lutts, J. R. Bowman, Jr., Arthur P. McWilliams, J. J. Connelly, John T. Craney, Edward T. Walsh, Joseph D. Harris, Erroll C. Lillibridge, Rollo H. Harris, W. E. Davis, Frank W. Brewster, Joseph P. Monaher, Milo R. Waters, Joseph Peringer, John T. R. Waters, Joseph Peringer, John T. Clark, Henry B. Davenport, James McNally, P. T. Connell, Frederic W. Cary, Wallace S, Allis, John Porteous, William B. Young, Alexander Durie, J. Edward Driscoll, Walter E. Canfield, J. P. Connor, Andrew B. Davies, Patrick J. Hayes and Louis H. Brunelle

MISSIONARY PLAY.

nterests of Southern Highlanders Presented in Dramatic Form. On Monday evening in the Sunday school room at Broadway Congrega-tional church an audience of 80 women enjoyed a joint meeting by the Broad-way Sodalitas and the Woman's Home Missionary society.

The first part of the entertaining and instructive programme was a dra-matic presentation of the interests of nedy was a very pleasing speaker and the listeners showed their appreciation by applauding at intervals throughout the speech.—The Portland Press. the southern highlanders, which was given through the medium of a mis-sionary play entitled Cindy's Chance. The play was given in costume, por-traying in a striking way the condi-tions which exist where missionary work is carried on, and how great and beneficial an influence is brought into the home and community life through the missionary work. It was given with great credit by the following well

Owing to unavoidable circumstances the management of the Auditorium theatre were unable to stage School Days on Morday and the production will have to be omitted today and tomorrow. However, School Days will be presented on the three last days of the week. The director of the company had to return to his home as he received a message that his mother was very ill and another member of Franny Miss Helen Boynton Cindy Mrs. George Gifford Sally Ann Miss Minnie Freeman Susie Miss Maisie Rider Molly Miss Theresa Hilderbrand reacher ... Miss Ida Adams Miss Rose ... Miss Lena Wolff School Girls, received a message that his mother was very ill and another member of the company was unable to appear, so it was thought best to omit the show for the first half of the week.

Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Freda Wienphal and Miss Gladys Thomas

To take the place of School Days the Ted Brown Minstrel Misses appeared in a minstrel act of merit. Very pretty song numbers, and handsome costumes made up in large part for the disappointment ever the non-appearance of the attraction advertised. The play, which was carried out under the general direction of Mrs. John E. Fanning, was followed by a short musical programme in which the numbers were announced by the president, Miss Elizabeth Wilson. They comprised the following; Plano solo, Miss Edith Boynton; whistling solo, Miss Edith Boynton; whistling solo, Miss Vera Blair; duet, Miss Maisie Rider and Miss Elizabeth Wilson; reading, Mrs. Frederick W. Lester; whistling solo, Miss Vera Blair.

Refreshments which were furnished by the Woman's Home Missionary society were served by the Sodalitas girls under the direction of a committee consisting of Miss Grace Rogers, chairman, Miss Elizabeth Sauter and Miss Gladys Thomas. The candy table was in charge of Miss Marguerite Wulf, Miss Gertrude Gallup and Miss Lena Adams. The play, which was carried out un The feature movie was a three reeler, After Her Millions, with Gertrude Selby and the well known commedian Billy Ritchie, who are ably backed by the members of the L-KO company. A strongly dramatic photoplay completed the bill.

Made Associate Editor.

Robert H. Mahoney of this city was elected associate editor of the Holy Cross Purple at a recent meeting of the editorial staff of the paper. He has been a frequent contributor to the Purple and has been actively engaged in literary pursuits. Mr. Mahoney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mahoney of Falls avenue. He is a graduate of St. Patrick's school, class of 1909, and is a graduate of the N. F. A., class of 1915. No Repairs to Ocean Beach Dike. That the dike bordering Alewife cover at Ocean Beach will remain in its pres-ent tumbledown condition as far as any Has Been a Year in Kansas.

Miss Pauline Kern, ordained minister evangelist and Bible reader, is spending a vacation at her home at No. 483 Boswell avenue. For a year she has been in Kansas in evangelistic work, from which she has testimonials which speak of the success that has attended her efforts in various fields.

ent tumbledown condition as far as any co-operative effort by the city of New London and the beach property owners is concerned is seemingly a certainty now. The season is now so far advanced that there couldn't be accomplished before summer arrives the rebuilding of the dike and construction of a walk and railings upon its ton as was contemplated, undess the work that has attended her efforts in various fields.

ent tumbledown condition as far as any co-operative effort by the city of New Lighted with Parisian Sage, for there is nothing that will so help to double your present attractiveness as luxuriant, glorious hair, and this tonic treatment is all that can possibly be desired.

Be sure to get Parisian Sage from Lee & Osgood Co., or at any drug counter, as there is no other so effective.

LOVING CUP TO

JOHN M. GALLUP. Presented in South Church, Hartford-Organist 38 Years.

On Sunday morning John M. Gallup, a native of Norwich, retired as organist and choir director of the South church of Hartford, a position he has held for 38 years past. At the close of the service, the pastor, Rev. Irving H. Berg, presented the retiring organist a silver loving cup.

The cup stands 12 inches high and has three handles which are joined to has three nandles which are joined to the brim with richly wrought ornamen-tation, the motif of which is reproduced in the base. The cup is gold washed inside the bowl.

The inscription is as follows:

achieved.
Members present at the meeting John M. Gallup Thirty-eight Years Organist and Cholr Director in the Second Church of spoke of the large number who are expressing interest in the building and loan association and signifying their Christ in Hartford From His Friends in the Congregation

> At the same service Miss Margaret A. Reynolds completed her 24th year as contratto, while Judge Herbert S. Bullard, bass; Charles H. Cooley, Jr., tenor, and Charles L. Boiles, baritone, sang for the last time as members of the South church choir. The retiring singers were also presented tokens of the love and esteem in which they have been held by their many friends in the

PAPER MILL PROPERTY

South church

TRANSFER IS MADE New Owners Take Over the Hubbard Mill in Greeneville.

The final transfer in the sale of the given in the town hall on April 13th, if the hall can be secured for that date. A. H. Hubbard Co., paper mill Greeneville, to the Norwich Paper Mills Co., was consummated on Monday. The officers of the new company are: President, Frank L. Briggs; treasurer, Clark J. Bush; secretary, Darwin D. Briggs, who are also directors.

The amount of authorized capital stock of the Norwich Paper Mills Co. is 2400 shares of common stock and 1600 shares of preferred stock amount-amount paid in.

The amount paid in property other than cash is $60,000. The stockholders are: Clark J. Bush, Hackensack, N. J., 800 preferred, 1200 common; Frank L. Briggs, Norwich, 800 preferred, 1199 common; Darwin D. Briggs, Norwich, ne share om common stock.

The paper mill, which has been shut down for about a week, will be operatthe regular train which will take those in favor of the bill there. Those favoring the bill will have two special cars on the regular 9.23 o'clock train out of the Central Vermont station. crease in the production of the mill.

POLICEMAN FENTON CAUGHT MAN WITH PLUNDER John Carsel Had Galvanized Iron in a Bag. John Carsel, who is employed on the new Majestic building on Wate street by J. B. Shannon, was discov-ered by Policeman Henry Fenton in the neighborhood of the building Mor day evening carrying a suspecious looking bag. The man ran as the officer approached and dropped the bay which later was found to contain gal vanized iron such as is used on th building. The policeman caught Carsel on the New Haven railroad tracks and he was locked up on suspicion that he was stealing material from the build-

OBITUARY.

Charles S. Young. Charles S. Young, for 26 years a po- Day Message of 10 words 25c iceman on the Providence police force, Day Letter of 50 words 38c Sunday morning, at his home, rear of 41 Oak street in Providence. If was appointed a policeman in the Second precinct in 1884, and was retired on pension from the Fifth precinct in He was born in Killingly, Conn., in 1852, and served as a machinist in Providence until appointed to the po lice force. He served first in the Sec Seventh, and was serving in the Fifth when he was retired in 1910. He was pensioned on June 7 of that year.

William P. Bliss. William P. Bliss, 82 years old, died at the Home for Aged Men at Provi-dence Saturday afternoon of old age allments, from which he had been suffering for the past five years. He was born in Jewett City, Conn., and went to Providence with his parents as a child. For the greater part of his life he had been employed in Providence mills, becoming an inmate of the Home for Aged Men six years ago. Mrs. Frederick A. Beausoleil. Word has been received in this city of the death of Cordelia, widow of Frederick A. Beausoleil, which occur-red late Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Roberts, of Hol-

Mrs. Beausoleil leaves the following children, in addition to her daughter, Mrs. Roberts, with whom she resided: Henry P. Beausoleil and H. A. Beausoleil of this city, Fred Beausoleil and A. A. Beausoleil of Hartford and Mrs. Hicks of Boston. There also survive three brothers, Joseph Charbonneau of Canada, Antone Charbonneau of Goldsmith, N. Y., and Edward Charbonneau of Middleboro, Mass. Mrs. Beausoleil, who was about 58 years of age, formerly resided in this city. The body will be brought here for burial.

Mrs. Erastus Williams. Mrs Beausolell leaves the following

Mrs. Erastus Williams. At 1 o'clock Monday afternoon Lydia
A. Ross, widow of Erastus Williams, died at the Sheltering Arms, where she had lived for six years. Mrs. Williams would have been 98 years of age if she had lived until May 15. Mr. Williams died some years ago, and her recorst died some years ago, and her nearest relative is a daughter-in-law who re-sides in the west.

For Beautiful Hair, Nourish the Scalp

Dandruff must be removed and hair roots nourished to stop falling hair and itching scaip. It is unnecessary to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly your hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, simply rub Parisian Sage well into the scalp and it will be all that is ever needed. The hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair. Even all dandruff is removed with one application, itching scalp and falling hair cease the hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant, and radiant with life and beauty.

Parisian Sage, a daintily perfumed Parisian Sage, a daintily perfume liquid, is one of the most pleasant, ir liquid, is one of the most pleasant, invigorating and refreshing hair tonics known, yet perfectly harmless and inexpensive. After the first application you will be surprised and delighted with Parisian Sage, for there is nothing that will so help to double your present attractiveness as luxuriant, glorious hair, and this tonic treatment is all that can possibly be deaired.

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers

337 MAIN STREET

Oppasite Post Office. Lady Assistant 'Phone 321-2

Incidents in Society

Miss Francis Cowles, a member of the faculty of the State Normal Train-ing school, Willimantic, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. C. Osgood of East Town

Mrs. James Paine of Danielson was the guest Monday of Miss Gertrude S. Hyde of Washington street, Miss Hyde returns today (Tuesday) to her duties at Mt, Holyoke colege, South Hadley Falls, Mass., after spending a week's vacation in town a week's vacation in town.

No Increase in Wages by Bay State Railroad.

Boston, March 29.-Instead of being ble to grant the demands of its em-State Street Railway company will ask the arbitration board, which is now hearing evidence in the matter, to re-duce the existing wages of the men, according to a statement by James M. Swift, counsel for the company, at to-day's session of the arbitration hear-

Strike Sympathizers Create Disturbance in Boston.

Boston, March 29.—Demonstrations in sympathy with a strike of garment workers at a clothing shop on Brat-le street resulted in fifteen arrests to-Nine men were taken into custody on charges of lotering. Their companions, angered at the police ac-tion, precipitated a disturbance in six others were arrested for dis-

TO THE RESIDENTS

ELECTORS OR TAXPAY-ERS OF THE TOWN OF NORWICH AND CITY OF NORWICH:

For those unable to attend the meeting in Hartford today a telegram sent via the Western Union Telegraph company addressed to New Towns and Probate Districts Committee, The Capitol, Hartford, will bear as much weight as your presence at the meeting.

Phone 1235

F. J. KING President of Board of Trade

TO THE RESIDENTS Electors or Taxyayers of the Town and

City of Norwich: A general invitation is extended to all residents, electors or taxpayers of the Town and City of Norwich to attend the hearing before the Committee on New Towns and Probate Districts in the Hall of the House of Representatives at the Capitol. Hartford, on TUESDAY, March 30th, at 2 P. M., to show by your presence your opposition to the proposed dismemberment of the Town of Norwich. The importance of your showing an active interest in this matter cannot be overstated.. Postpone personal and business engagements and attend this hearing.

A special train will leave for Hartford Tuesday morning at 9:05 o'clock.

Give your name, if you will attend, to Herbert M. Lerou, McGrory Building, 289 Main street, or Henry W. Tibbits, at Board of Trade rooms, which will be open at all hours.

ALBERT W. LILLIBRIDGE First Selectman of the Town Norwich

TIMOTHY C. MURPHY Mayor of the City of Norwich FRANK J. KING

President of the Board of Trade W. H. CRUICKSHANK President of the Chamber of Commerce.